

The Mercury News

BayAreaNewsGroup

eat·drink·play

7 wineries team up for child advocacy

Posted on May 18, 2016 by Linda Zavoral

Concannon, of Livermore, will be among the wineries pouring May 21. (Anda Chu/Staff archives)

Seven Northern California wineries will do the pouring for a good cause Saturday, May 21.

The occasion is the 30th anniversary gala celebrating the “heroes and legends” of Child

Advocates of Silicon Valley, a group that recruits, trains and supports court-appointed special advocates to work one-on-one with foster children. Honorees will include CASA co-founders Nora Manchester and retired Judge Len Edwards and longtime volunteers.

Catered Too is handling the hors d’oeuvres and entrees, and the wine has been donated by Adobe Road Winery (Petaluma); Wente Family Estates (Livermore), Rosati Family Winery (Mendocino County), Testarossa Winery (Los Gatos), Concannon Vineyard (Livermore), J. Lohr Vineyards (San Jose) and Zayante Vineyards (Felton).

The event runs from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Club Sport, 521 Charcot Ave., San Jose. Tickets, $200, at www.bemyadvocate.org.